

Springer's Book Performance Report

Released in June 2019

Proceedings of the Asian Conference on Intelligent Information and Database Systems (ACIIDS), comprising papers presented orally, are published within the Springer's LNCS/LNAI series. In turn, papers presented during poster sessions, are published in the form of chapters of the scientific monographs within the Springer's Studies in Computational Intelligence.

According to the recent Springer Reports of June 2019 the Proceedings of ACIIDS 2017, ACIIDS 2016, ACIIDS 2015, ACIIDS 2014, and ACIIDS 2012 belong to the top 25% most downloaded eBooks in their respective Springer's eBook Collection in 2018. Moreover, the Proceedings of ACIIDS 2018 belong to the top 10% most downloaded eBooks.

Up to date we have published 21 volumes of LNCS/LNAI Proceedings including 1,283 papers in total and 307 papers in eight SCI books. As stated in the Springer Bookmetrix of August 1, 2019 the total number of paper downloads is over than 1.84 million.

Detailed download and citation data are shown in the following tables.
